To Whom it May Concern,

This is a letter of recommendation for Dave Roush. As an EMS provider and supervisor, I have come into contact with Dave countless times in the field. Dave is an excellent reporter who has really bridged the gap between local EMS and the news. We have found Dave to be courteous, honest, respectful, factual, and open minded.

Although he is diligent in his work he is also cautious to not interfere with our rescue efforts. I have never had to ask Dave to back up out of my way. When asked, Dave will roll up his sleeves and assist us as much as he is able. You'll never see Dave shove a microphone towards the face of a grieving mother, or get a close up shot of a dead body in a car, but he still covers the story accurately, efficiently, and gets shots that are effective in portraying the scene.

Dave's behavior on scenes is professional. His reports are accurate, honest, and timely. He distinguishes between the various EMS, police, and fire services instead of lumping us all into one big group. He is honest and respectful with us when inquiring about stories. And because of this, he has gained my respect and the respect of my co-workers.

Sincerely,

Christal Blakeslee EMT-P
