To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to offer my personal and professional recommendation of David Roush for a position within your organization.

I find Mr. Roush to be a person of intellect, perseverance, and integrity. I strongly believe that his proficiency and on-the-job experience suitably qualify him for a position within your company. As a State Representative I have come in contact with Mr. Roush on assorted venues; whether it was a personal interview, a public hearing or election night coverage, I can attest to the fact that Mr. Roush always handled himself in a professional and courteous manner. I believe his reporting to be accurate and unbiased.

Clearly, upon reviewing Mr. Roush's qualifications, I believe you will agree that he would be a tremendous asset to any organization and would serve your company with distinction.

Thank you for your kind review of this recommendation.

Sincerely,
